Events

We absolutely love events. The lights, the food, the music and the atmosphere. Everyone coming together for a day or night of socialising, connecting and celebrating.

From a media announcement to a product launch, from 2,000+ corporate celebrations to gala dinners and multi-artist concerts - it's just not a party without m4m. We have been organising and hosting events since Expo 88, and attending them for longer than we care to remember, which means we know what it takes to put on a memorable shindig!

Over the years, m4m has worked on and continues to develop and deliver some amazing bespoke events across Australia for our valued clients including Roadshow Films, Origin Energy, RWH Foundation, the Allison Baden-Clay Foundation, Brisbane Festival's City of Lights, Virgin Australia, Western Downs Regional Council, University of Western Sydney, Santos, APA Group, the Brandenburg Orchestra and many more.

We have the technical and creative skills to put together extraordinary events that tend to be the talk of the town. As much as we love challenges and surprises, successful events happen as a result of thorough & experience planning, which means we avoid risks, impromptus and improvises on the day. Every small detail is taken care of so you won't have to worry about anything other than entertaining your guests.

Leave the planning to the experts.... it's what we do! From the venue, schedule and caterers to the awe-inspiring decor, guest list and entertainment, we'll plan and execute a fun and impressive event from start to finish. We'll listen to your every need, consider your budget and guests, and come up with and execute an event that exceeds your expectations. Let us help you with:
